

Introducing the Project to Students

SCHOOL MUSEUMS

Explain to students that together they will be creating a school museum, which is likely to be very different from other projects in which they've participated. Show students pictures of other school museums (kidcurators.com) and explain that children created these exhibits by reading, researching, writing, and constructing their own museum that was open to the school and community.

To view video stories and photographs of completed school museum projects please visit:

- kidcurators.com
- vimeo.com/kidcurators